

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, APRIL 4 1902

PRICE ONE CENT.

1,500 BADGER GAME DENS IN NEW YORK.

District-Attorney Makes Remarkable Charge: Man Taken For Tammany Wardmen Are in League with Women Robbers.

District-Attorney Jerome to-day practically charged that wardmen in certain precincts are in league with women who get money from men by means of panel or badger games. It says there are 1,500 places where men are systematically robbed by women in this city. In one precinct he knows of fifty places and has the address of fifteen of them.

The victim when he complains to the police is taken back to the scene of the robbery by a wardman. Another woman is found and the victim cannot identify. Then the wardman makes it plain that if there is an arrest there will be publicity and nine times out of ten the victim concludes to drop the matter. Then, the District-Attorney avers, the wardman hunts up the woman and makes her give up 50 per cent. of the proceeds of the robbery.

Despite efforts at secrecy The Evening World has learned the plans of the panel-stricken police officials to combat the patrolmen's revolt.

Three secret meetings will be held early next week.

The Roundsmen's Association will, unless this publication changes the plan, meet next Tuesday afternoon in Maennerchor Hall.

The Sergeants' Association will meet Tuesday evening in an out-of-the-way hall in Williamsburg.

Joint committees of these associations the next day will report to a meeting of the Captains' Association.

The meeting place of the Captains' Association is still a carefully guarded secret.

It is known, however, that at this meeting ex-Chief Devery, who is still the head of the organization, will preside.

After the roundsmen and sergeants have reported the captains will map out a decisive course of action designed to force the patrolmen to terms and to thwart all efforts of Low, Jerome and Partridge to protect them.

Although the calls for the meetings have been issued with great secrecy Commissioner Partridge is well aware of the movement. It is said around Police Headquarters that he will have men at all three meetings who will report to him what has been done.

Col. Partridge, not content with the closing up of the saloons, now insists that the patrolmen close up gambling houses also, and this move on his part has still further antagonized those police officials who profit by the system.

FIFTY-TWO CHARGES AGAINST FOODY.

The papers in the case of Capt. Michael E. Foody, charged with neglect of duty, were compelled to-day by the District-Attorney and sent by him to Police Commissioner Partridge. The specifications cover ten typewritten pages. There are fifty-two separate charges of neglect of duty, each of an excessive violation.

There were 106 specific cases in which evidence had been obtained, but the fifty-two used were considered sufficient. The evidence was gathered on the last four Sundays in March. The charges will be served on Foody to-day.

PATROLMEN MUST CLOSE GAMBLING HOUSES, TOO.

It is now "up" to the police to not only close up saloons during the prohibited hours, but the gambling houses and poolrooms as well.

Colonel Partridge in a statement to-day practically says as much. The police have placed themselves on record he declares and must now live up to the principle they have defined. Here is the Commissioner's statement.

"What you call a revolt: I prefer to speak of as a reform. On Jan. 1, at my first meeting with the commanding officers of the department, I warned them that I expected them to 'maintain discipline by the exercise of both kindness and firmness, and to be fair and just to all, not making charges against innocent men and not allowing guilty men to escape them.' I also said that the persecution of inferiors by superiors would not be tolerated.

Thinks Reform Genuine.

"It has been intimated that this is not a genuine reform. Until it is proved to be, I prefer to assume that it is. So far, however, the reform seems to have been along only one line of police duty, and that is against excessive violations whose saloons are open during forbidden hours. Section 33 of the New York Charter, which defines the duties of the police, names other duties equally prominent with the enforcement of excessive laws.

"I think it is generally conceded that the gambling house where the young man with a small income and large family squanders his own, and sometimes his employer's money; the disorderly house where men are drugged and robbed; the liquor saloon, where, during legal hours, disorderly women are admitted, and in which liquor is sold to habitual drunkards, and where crimes are planned and fostered, do much more harm to the community than the otherwise decent saloon, whose only violation of law is in occasionally

CECIL RHODES FOUNDED AMERICAN SCHOLARSHIPS.

Will Provides for Two at Oxford for Each of the Present States and Territories.

LONDON, April 4.—Cecil Rhodes provided in his will for two scholarships at Oxford University for each of the present States and Territories of the United States.

This is in addition to the colonial scholarships already announced as established by Mr. Rhodes.

The will of Mr. Rhodes also provides for five scholarships for students of German birth, at Oxford, to be nominated by Emperor William, and, commenting on the bequest, Mr. Rhodes, in a codicil telegraphed from South Africa, said:

"For a good understanding between England, Germany and the United States will secure the peace of the world, and educational relations form the strongest tie."

Mr. Rhodes's will is a remarkable document of over 2,500 words. Even this is not the entire will, as the executor only gave out the portions which they consider to be public interest. It was executed in 1899. There is a codicil attached on the day of the deceased's last departure from England, and another, cabled from Cape Town, leaves $4,000 yearly to keep up the spot

NIXON'S DOUBLE GETS ARRESTED.

Man Taken For Tammany Chieftain In Police Hands.

LEADER DENIES IT WAS HE.

Arrest Was for Speeding Auto, He Wasn't in Machine All Day.

Really, these policemen are getting so they will arrest anybody. One of them arrested a man who looked like Lewis Nixon, the leader of Tammany Hall, this afternoon.

And the man who looked like Mr. Nixon had to pass between the green lights of the bicycle squad station in Fifty-ninth street.

Then mystery began to gather about the affair.

In the first place, the sergeant on duty at the station of the bicycle squad denied that Lewis Nixon had been arrested. There was no record of the arrest on the blotter. The sergeant denied that anybody had been arrested for speeding an auto on Broadway.

Mr. Nixon at Tammany Hall this afternoon said he hadn't been arrested. He had not been in his automobile during the day he declared emphatically.

The police, too, said Mr. Nixon had not been arrested. They wouldn't say who had been arrested, in fact.

The sergeant on duty at the station of the bicycle squad denied that anybody had been arrested for speeding an auto on Broadway. And there was no record of any arrest on the blotter.

A policeman at Fifty-third street and Seventh avenue saw an auto in which a man who looked like Mr. Nixon, going on Seventh avenue. A bicycle roundsmen was escorting the auto.

DEATH SENTENCE FOR NEGRO LANE.

RECORD - BREAKING TRIAL FOR TRIPLE MURDERER.

Proceedings Covered One Hour and Twenty Minutes—Shot Mother and Two Children.

PHILADELPHIA, April 4.—William H. Lane, the colored servant who on Tuesday last murdered Ella J. Jarden and her daughter Madeline and so badly wounded another daughter, Eloise, that she died today, was convicted of murder in the first degree this afternoon, after a trial lasting less than one and a half hours.

Lane pleaded guilty yesterday and was placed on trial at 1 o'clock to-day. Because of Lane's plea of guilty no jury was drawn and only three witnesses were called for the purpose of determining the degree of murder.

At 2:20 o'clock Judge Biddle sentenced the murderer to death. The date of his execution will be fixed by Gov. Stone.

Eloise, the seven-year-old daughter of Ella J. Jarden, otherwise known as Mrs. Ella J. Furush, died in a hospital this morning from the effects of her injury.

Charles A. Furush, under whose name Miss Jarden had lived for years, is suffering from heart disease, and the disclosures in his life brought about by the murder of the woman may cause his death. His wife knew of his relations with Miss Jarden. It seems that he had a third establishment in Ambler, where he maintained a Mrs. Reed.

LIEUT.-COL. BRADY OUT OF THE 23D.

HE RESIGNS FROM CRACK BROOKLYN REGIMENT.

It is Said He Was Practically Forced Out Owing to Disagreement.

Lieut.-Col. Jasper E. Brady, of the Twenty-third Regiment, Brooklyn, resigned last night from that organization and his resignation is in the hands of Gen. A. C. Barnes, the colonel commanding.

Lieut.-Col. Brady's resignation, it is said, practically amounts to his being forced out from Brooklyn's fashionable regiment, since it has just become known that immediately after his election eighteen months ago he was required to hand in his resignation, undated, to Gen. Barnes.

Gen. Barnes said that the most amicable relations exist between Lieut.-Col. Brady and himself, but this was denied by Brady this morning. He said to-day, after confirming the fact that he had resigned:

"The relations between Gen. Barnes and myself have not been the most harmonious, and I am free to acknowledge that differences of opinion upon questions of military policy in the Twenty-third have occurred."

CECIL RHODES IN WILL POINTS WAY TO ETERNAL PEACE.

LONDON, April 4.—W. T. Stead, commenting on Cecil Rhodes's will, points out that he writes:

"What an awful thought it is, that if even now we could arrange with the present members of the United States Assembly and our House of Commons the peace of the world would be secured for all eternity. We could hold a Federal Parliament, five years in Washington and five in London. The American has been taught the lesson of Home Rule."

CITY PAYS ONLY 38 CENTS A DAY FOR CARE OF A BABY.

How much it costs to keep a baby in a public institution was a subject of discussion before the Board of Estimate and Apportionment to-day. The question came up when the appropriation for Long Island College Hospital was reached. The city has been paying 38 cents a day for each baby taken care of there. Henry W. Maxwell maintained that it costs 80 cents a day to properly care for a baby in an institution. The question was not settled.
